

The Rappahannock Colonial Heritage Society proudly presents an

18th Century Clothing Workshop

Saturday, September 6th, from 10am to 3pm in Faulkner Hall at St. George's Episcopal Church Princess Anne Street, Fredericksburg Virginia

Featuring

Ms Jane Pease

presenting a program representing both Ladies & Gentlemen's attire

Ms Pease is a long term member and past president of the Living History Foundation, a Gunstonian, an English Country dancer, a Carlyle House Player, 18th Century clothing researcher, and a sewing instructor at G Street Fabrics (just to name a few).

A light lunch will be provided. Admission is free. Please RSVP by Friday Sep 5th so we can be sure to have enough seating & food. To RSVP or for further information, please contact Elaine Sturgeon at 540-785-2168 or miselaineus@yahoo.com

Whether you are a newbie OR a seasoned "vet" in 18th century Living History, a lady or a gentlemen – this event is for you! Please come prepared with any questions you might have about your 18th century attire presentation, how to get started, what to do for head wear, or whatever is on your 18th century attire mind.
